It all started when she was a teenager, fascinated with the mystery of dating.

After years of research, and studied observation, she realized that understanding male/female differences was transforming her relationships with all the men in her life.

For over 15 years she has shared her expertise, guiding participants to fulfilling and fun relationships. In 2002 Keri began co-teaching seminars for men and women for Can't Love Without It, a company created by her mother, Dr. Sherie Zander. Together this mother/daughter team is bringing fresh insights to the mysterious world of relationship dynamics.

Keri has also created Can't Date Without It, offering dating and flirting seminars and one-on-one coaching. Her direct approach and fun-loving manner have allowed her to succeed as a dating and relationship expert.

several ways to meet them.

For starters, you can get involved in any hobby you enjoy or try a new one (golf is a good place to meet men)!

There are many single's events happening all the time, from Rapid Dating or our Dating Expert Panel Discussion & Flirt Party to Secret Strategies for Dating & Loving It seminar that you can find on the web. Another option is to attend a church or synagogue and get involved in their single's events. Cupid's Coach offers modern day matchmaking as well. Even though L.A. is more spread out, there are always events happening all around the city to draw us closer together. I love L.A.!!

Dr. Sherie Zander

We all want a great, loving relationship, yet, statistics show that very few have one.

What keeps us from it?

Dr. Sherie believes that our failure to be aware of our many male/female differences is the major cause of frustration, irritation, anger, and hurt that characterize most relationships. Believing that we share the same reality will set us up to fail. Learning about our differences will set us free to love, appreciate, respect and enjoy each other. Dr. Sherie gives relationship advice and couple counseling.

Can't Love Without It provides life changing information about the nature and needs of men and women and practical tools for relating that really do work! Finally you will be able to express the love and caring you have in a way that will be received and understood. You will discover how to create connection and maintain a partnership.

If you suffer with emotional wounds from childhood, Dr. Sherie provides individual psychotherapy sessions to move you toward healing and wholeness. Love relationship advice or couple counseling could be the solution that you have been waiting for.

Helping Women Express All Of Their Beauty...

One Wig At A Time

Rochelle Scott, owner of Godiva's Secret Wigs in Woodland Hills and Thousand Oaks, may be a natural when it comes to customer satisfaction, but the hair she loves to wear is strictly synthetic. She's a blond, which may explain why her inviting wig shop carries the most fabulous blond wigs anywhere.

Her close knit staff are truly experts in their line of business. They create a warm and welcoming environment that is key to their success. "Our mission is to empower women personally and professionally and we really do walk the walk."

What started out as a playful way to "express all the women inside me", turned into a real need for women that had hair loss from health issues, in particular women going through chemotherapy. "We empower our clients with knowledge and confidence, and combine that with very positive TLC."

"We have a very strict criteria for how we choose our wigs," explains Rochelle. "They must be light and comfortable to wear, so as to not inhibit hair growth. We only carry wigs that look real, made of great quality at a great price."

As an award winning business-person, Rochelle has come up with a recipe for success at Godiva's Secret Wigs, which has resulted in opening Godiva's After Dark, "a boutique for romance," also located in Woodland Hills. Both stores have been so well received that Scott just opened two new locations in Thousand Oaks this May.

The reason her stores have been so popular are because they fill a need and make a positive difference in people's lives. Rochelle says, "We teach our clients the secret to making everyday a great hair day."
